This Amendment No. 6 amends and supplements the Schedule 13D originally filed by the reporting persons with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on August 4, 2006 (the “Original Schedule 13D”), as amended by Amendment No. 1 filed with the SEC on October 6, 2006 (“Amendment No. 1”), Amendment No. 2 filed on October 10, 2006 (“Amendment No. 2”), Amendment No. 3 filed on October 19, 2006 (“Amendment No. 3”), Amendment No. 4 filed on December 24, 2006 (“Amendment No. 4”), and Amendment No. 5 filed on March 2, 2007 (“Amendment No. 5”, together with the Original Schedule 13D, Amendment No. 1, Amendment No. 2, Amendment No. 3 and Amendment No. 4, collectively, the “Schedule 13D”). Unless otherwise indicated, each capitalized term used but not defined herein shall have the meaning assigned to such term in the Original Schedule 13D.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The response set forth in Item 3 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended by deleting the text of Item 3 in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

The securities reported herein were acquired with funds of approximately $34.1 million (including brokerage commissions). All such funds were provided from investment capital of one or more open- or closed-end investment companies or other managed accounts that are managed by Templeton Asset Management Limited (“TAML”), Franklin Templeton Portfolio Advisors, Inc. and Franklin Advisers, Inc. (the “Investment Management Subsidiaries”), each of which is a direct or indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of FRI.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The response set forth in Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended by deleting the text of Item 4 in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

The Investment Management Subsidiaries purchased the Ordinary Shares for their investment management clients for the purpose of investment. All such purchases were made in the open market in the ordinary course of the Investment Management Subsidiaries’ business. None of the Investment Management Subsidiaries, and none of any of the other reporting persons covered by this Schedule 13D, currently has any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions described in paragraphs (a) through (j) of the instructions to Item 4 of Schedule 13D, except as otherwise set forth herein. TAML is concerned with the effect on the value of its investment management clients’ investment in the Issuer of the Issuer’s failure to timely file its financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and the consequential delisting of the Ordinary Shares from The NASDAQ Global Select Market. The explanations publicly announced by the Issuer for its failure to file the financial statements did not allay these concerns. Accordingly, TAML, together with the other reporting persons, filed this Schedule 13D to provide TAML flexibility to explore appropriate action that it, alone or together with other shareholders in the Issuer, could take to better evaluate and ultimately rectify their concerns. Such actions may include engaging in discussions with the Issuer, members of its Board of Directors, its officers, shareholders and others. On October 18, 2006, counsel, on behalf of certain reporting persons, sent a letter to the Issuer (through counsel), the English translation of which is incorporated by reference herein as Exhibit E, demanding, among other things, that a shareholders meeting be held promptly. On December 24, 2006, counsel, on behalf of certain reporting persons, sent a letter to the Issuer and certain counsel, the English translation of which is incorporated by reference herein as Exhibit F, demanding, among other things, that the Issuer exercise all its rights against officers of the Issuer, against members of the audit committee, against the Issuer's internal auditor, against members of the board of directors and against any other person to recover the Issuer's damages and losses incurred by their acts and omissions, among other things, as specified in the letter and in accordance with any other cause of action available to the Issuer pursuant to a contract or any law. On March 28, 2007, counsel, on behalf of certain reporting persons, sent a letter to the Issuer's counsel, the English translation of which is attached hereto as Exhibit G, responding to the Issuer's Form 20-F filed with the SEC on March 20, 2007, and press release filed March 23, 2007. That press release stated, among other things, that the Issuer has retained a financial advisor to assist it in pursuing strategic alternatives, including an equity investment, an infusion of working capital, or the purchase of the Issuer's outstanding shares. The letter of March 28, 2007, among other things: (a) warns the Issuer, its controlling shareholders and directors not to adopt any steps that are not in the normal course of business, including steps that would affect the Issuer's capital and/or the structure of its capital and/or ownership of its shares and/or ownership of its controlling shareholders' shares, without receiving the shareholders' consent before their completion; (b) demands that if there is a sale of the Issuer's and/or its controlling shareholders' shares to any third party, such party give reasonable prior notice thereof and offer the reporting persons the opportunity to sell their shares on the same terms; and (c) states that if the Issuer continues to act without informing the shareholders and considering the interests of all shareholders, the reporting persons will adopt legal measures to preserve the rights and interests of all shareholders.

The Investment Management Subsidiaries' investment management clients may in the future acquire additional Ordinary Shares or other securities of the Issuer, in the open market, in privately-negotiated purchases or otherwise, and may also dispose of all or a portion of the Ordinary Shares in one or more transactions. The Investment Management Subsidiaries have purchased and/or disposed of a portion of such Ordinary Shares and may continue to do so. Additionally, the Investment Management Subsidiaries' investment management clients reserve the right to exercise any and all of their respective rights as stockholders of the Issuer in a manner consistent with their equity interests and reserve the right from time to time to formulate plans or proposals regarding the Issuer or any of its securities, including without limitation to carry out any of the actions or transactions described in paragraphs (a) through (j) of the instructions to Item 4 of Schedule 13D, to the extent deemed advisable by the Investment Management Subsidiaries.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

The response set forth in Item 5 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended by deleting the text of Item 5 in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

(a-b) The 2,818,821 shares of Ordinary Shares of the Issuer (the “Securities”), representing 9.5% of the outstanding Ordinary Shares, are beneficially owned by one or more open- or closed-end investment companies or other managed accounts that are investment management clients of the Investment Management Subsidiaries (the “Investment Management Clients”). Investment management contracts grant to the Investment Management Subsidiaries all investment and/or voting power over the securities owned by such Investment Management Clients, except as otherwise disclosed below. Therefore, for purposes of Rule 13d-3 under the Act, the Investment Management Subsidiaries may be deemed to be the beneficial owners of the Securities.

Beneficial ownership by investment management subsidiaries and other affiliates of FRI is being reported in conformity with the guidelines articulated by the SEC staff in Release No. 34-39538 (January 12, 1998) relating to organizations, such as FRI, where related entities exercise voting and investment powers over the securities being reported independently from each other. The voting and investment powers held by Franklin Mutual Advisers, LLC (“FMA”), an indirect wholly-owned investment management subsidiary of FRI, are exercised independently from FRI and from all other investment management subsidiaries of FRI (FRI, its affiliates and the investment management subsidiaries other than FMA are, collectively, “FRI affiliates”). Furthermore, internal policies and procedures of FMA and FRI establish informational barriers that prevent the flow between FMA and the FRI affiliates of information that relates to the voting and investment powers over the securities owned by their respective investment management clients. Consequently, FMA and the FRI affiliates report the securities over which they hold investment and voting power separately from each other for purposes of Section 13 of the Act.

The Principal Shareholders each own in excess of 10% of the outstanding common stock of FRI and are the principal stockholders of FRI. FRI and the Principal Shareholders may be deemed to be, for purposes of Rule 13d-3 under the Act, the beneficial owners of securities held by persons and entities for whom or for which FRI subsidiaries provide investment management services. The number of shares that FRI and the Principal Shareholders may be deemed to beneficially own and the percentage of the class of which such shares are a part are reported in Items 11 and 13 of the cover pages for FRI and each of the Principal Shareholders. FRI, the Principal Shareholders and each of the Investment Management Subsidiaries disclaim any pecuniary interest in any of the Securities. In addition, the filing of this Schedule 13D on behalf of the Principal Shareholders, FRI and FRI affiliates, as applicable, should not be construed as an admission that any of them is, and each disclaims that it is, the beneficial owner, as defined in Rule 13d-3, of any of the Securities.

FRI, the Principal Shareholders, and each of the Investment Management Subsidiaries believe that they are not a “group” within the meaning of Rule 13d-5 under the Act and that they are not otherwise required to attribute to each other the beneficial ownership of the Securities held by any of them or by any persons or entities for whom or for which FRI subsidiaries provide investment management services.

The number of Ordinary Shares as to which each reporting person on this Schedule 13D and other Investment Management Subsidiaries has:

(i) Sole power to vote or to direct the vote of the Ordinary Shares:

Franklin Resources, Inc.:	0
Rupert H. Johnson, Jr.:	0
Templeton Asset Management Ltd.:	2,808,751
Franklin Advisers, Inc.:	10,070

(ii) Shared power to vote or to direct the vote of the Ordinary Shares:

(iii) Sole power to dispose or to direct the disposition of the Ordinary Shares:

Rupert H. Johnson, Jr.:	0
Templeton Asset Management Ltd.:	2,808,751
Franklin Advisers, Inc.:	10,070

(iv) Shared power to dispose or to direct the disposition of the Ordinary Shares:

(c) Other than the transactions described in Exhibit B-6 of this statement, none of the reporting persons nor, to the best of their knowledge, any of the persons listed in Exhibit A, have effected any transactions in the Ordinary Shares during the 60-day period preceding the date this statement was filed.

(d) No person other than the clients of the Investment Management Subsidiaries is known to have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds from the sale of, the securities being reported herein.

(e) Not applicable.

Item 7. Material to Be Filed as Exhibits

The response set forth in Item 7 of the Schedule 13D is amended by deleting Exhibit A in its entirety and by adding the following:

Exhibit A: Executive Officers and Directors of Reporting Persons

Dear Colleagues,

Re: Taro Pharmaceutical Industry Ltd. (Company No. 52-002290-6) (hereinafter: the "Company")
20-F Report of 20 March 2007

On behalf of our client, Franklin Templeton Investments, we address you in relation to the above-referenced matter as follows:

1. As you know, on 20 March 2007 publication was made of the Company's 20-F report, which includes also the renewed presentation of the financial statements for the years 2003 and 2004, with considerable delay and after a prolonged period during which the Company refused to provide the necessary information to clarify the visible defects in conducting the Company's affairs. Our client is currently studying the contents of the report and the implications thereof.
2. A partial and preliminary examination of the report shows that the irregularities and failings in the Company's running are unusual in their severity. The said report, including the Company's auditors published warning regarding a "going concern", as contained therein, attests that there is a substantial risk of the Company not being able to meet its obligations and becoming insolvent. On these matters too, it appears that the Company is hiding more than it is revealing. Indeed, it appears, prima facie, that the said failings do not pertain merely to accounting errors, but stem from the improper handling of the Company.
3. As your client is aware, our client holds shares of the Company. Needless to say, our client's interests in the Company are directly affected by the state of the Company and by the manner in which it is run, in general and during the recent period, in particular. Our client has in the past approached the Company and its managers and accountants, on several occasions, with a demand to receive information on these issues. Notwithstanding our client's aforesaid holdings and despite its repeated requests in the past, to date adequate information and/or explanations with respect to the Company's situation were not given to the Company's shareholders in a satisfactory manner and in compliance with the statutory provisions.

4. Moreover, the Company is operating without fulfilling its obligations towards its shareholders, including by allowing them to participate in the efforts which might be a turning point in the Company's management and affairs. Thus, for example, from an examination of the Company's reports, as are available, inter alia, on its Internet site, it emerges that the Company has retained the services of the Blackstone Group as a financial consultant and that the Company intends adopting radical steps in order to raise capital, in the immediate future.

5. Thus, in the publication of 20.3.2007, it was stated that:

"These strategic alternatives include an equity investment, an infusion of working capital, or the purchase of the outstanding shares of the Company. The Company has requested that final proposals be submitted by March 30, 2007, with a definitive agreement expected to be completed during April 2007. However, the Company reserves the right to accelerate this process."

6. This general and vague announcement does not provide the information required by the shareholders, including our client, in order to assess the Company's situation, whether the acts being adopted serve the best interests of the Company and all the shareholders and whether all the necessary steps are being taken for the benefit of the Company and its shareholders. The timing of this general and vague notice, after protracted defective conduct of the Company and its managers, raises a grave and serious apprehension that the Company will continue to operate in a manner that discriminates against its minority shareholders, including our client. The foregoing is all the more valid when the Company is controlled, in practice, by two families (Levitt and Moros), who together hold 45.4% of the voting rights in the Company and can decide on its fate, without taking into account the interests and rights of the other shareholders and at the least, cause their dilution.
7. In this state of affairs, our client has instructed us (without derogating from any relief and/or other claim available to our client) to appeal, through you, to the Company, the controlling shareholders therein and members of the board of directors and warn them to refrain from adopting any steps which are not in the normal course of business, including steps which serve to affect the Company's capital and/or the structure of its capital and/or the ownership of its shares and/or the ownership of the shares of its controlling shareholders (including a charge over these shares), without receiving the shareholders' consent prior to their completion.

8. Without derogating from the generality of the foregoing, our client demands that if any sale is executed of the Company's shares and/or shares of the controlling shareholders in the Company to any third party, including the Blackstone Group and/or any party on its behalf, such party will undertake to offer our client to sell its shares in the Company on the same terms and while giving reasonable prior notice, the foregoing in order to ensure that our client's rights in the Company will not be unlawfully prejudiced or deprived.
9. Without derogating from any right and/or relief of our client vis-à-vis the Company and/or its controlling shareholders and/or managers, we wish to clarify that our client is concerned with the welfare of the Company and its shareholders. In view of the Company's conduct in the extensive period which preceded publication of the 20-F report (and the amended financial statements), our client believes that it will be wise for the Company and its controlling shareholders to cooperate and consult with the Company's shareholders, and the minority shareholders notwithstanding, on the steps relating to the improvement of the Company's situation, for the benefit of all the parties concerned. On the other hand, should the Company continue to act without informing the shareholders of what is being done therein and without considering the interests of all the shareholders, our client will not hesitate to adopt all legal measures, whose object is to secure preservation of the rights and interests of all shareholders of the Company.
10. Your prompt and concise response is vital, in view of the Company's announcement that it intends adopting operative steps already in April 2007.
11. This letter of ours does not purport to encompass all the implications and ramifications which emerge from a partial and preliminary examination of the Company's recent statements. It is self-evident that nothing in our letter and/or in what has been omitted therefrom will serve to constitute an extension and/or consent and they do not serve to exhaust and/or derogate from and/or make redundant claims and/or rights and/or demands and/or relief of our client (including the adoption of a class action thereby), both vis-à-vis the Company and vis-à-vis any other party (including the Company's officers, controlling shareholders and auditors) and they are all available to and reserved by our client.

Sincerely yours
with greetings for a Happy Passover,
